ILLUSTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Responsible for strategic direction of the nation's only organization focused on developing and improving the profession of court-appointed neutrals. Worked with others to change the organization's name from the Academy of Court-Appointed Masters to the Academy of Court-Appointed Neutrals, to open membership to people who had not previously served in that capacity; to develop and promote a new training and mentoring program and to partner the organization with dozens of others involved in the administration of justice (September 2021-)
- Mediator, DC Multidoor Family Mediation Program (2022-)
- Hearing Examiner for employment disputes, Architect of the Capitol (September 2019-)
- Hearing Committee, DC Board of Professional Responsibility, Panel Chair (Nov. 2, 2019-present), Panel Member (Nov. 2, 2016-November 2, 2019)
- Arbitrator, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (2019-)
- Commercial Arbitrator, American Arbitration Association (2018-)
- Represented plaintiffs and defendants in cases in state or federal courts in over 40 states and in numerous arbitrations
- Co-counsel in case resulting in a completely favorable Delaware jury verdict in favor of insurer based on failure to obtain consent to a settlement and affirmance by the Delaware Supreme Court
- Lead counsel for the Financial Planning Association in its successful challenge to the SEC's "broker-dealer" rule in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit.

- Lead counsel for the Air Line Pilots Association in the arbitration involving one of the largest financial claims in its history.
- Lead counsel for insurer in first case ever to rule on whether entity insurance coverage for securities claims applies to claims arising from the insured's securitization of mortgages
- Successfully represented client in administrative law challenge concerning EPA regulation in the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit
- Successfully represented client in NEPA challenge in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia
- Represented State of Nevada before the Nuclear Regulatory Commission in opposing the licensing of the Yucca Mountain repository
- Represented UPREIT contributor in arbitration seeking to enforce tax protection agreement entered into by one of the largest REITs in the world.
- Represented relators in novel False Claims Act case that obtained $76.25 million in recoveries based upon allegations of price fixing for carbon fiber and in companion antitrust litigation
- Successfully represented the USA Track & Field Association in an antitrust challenge to its standards for competition
- Lead counsel for the many-year primary insurer in a 15-year coverage dispute involving scores of thousands of asbestos claims
- Obtained an $87.5 million settlement, serving as plaintiffs' co-lead counsel on behalf of a group of telecommunication companies in litigation involving telephone rates
- Was part of a team that secured a jury verdict finding over 26,000 violations of the Federal False Claims Act relating to the purchase of oil off Government and Native American leases
- Lead counsel for the primary director's and officers' liability insurer in connection with what was at the time the nation's largest health care bankruptcy
- Represented two adult gay Eagle Scouts in 10-year litigation challenging the Boy Scouts' policy of excluding gays
- Lead counsel for inventor of the accordion-folded car shade in patent and Lanham Act challenge
- Substantially responsible for crafting the class action mechanisms used to settle $2 billion of asbestos liabilities
- Represented a DSL service provider in an antitrust action against a competing incumbent local exchange carrier for unlawfully maintaining monopoly power in various telecommunications markets
- Lead counsel for the (then) Veterans' Administration in two-month trial concerning the constitutionality of fee limits
- Lead counsel for the U.S. Department of Education in eight-month Kansas City, Missouri school desegregation trial
